Valentines Day excerpt from Crosswalk.com by Deborah Raney

Watching my parents, married more than fifty years now, and my husband's grandparents, whose marriage has spanned over seventy years, this year I am encouraged that romance is something God intended would bring us joy "till death do us part." Through their loving relationships, I realize that the roots of romance thrive in something so simple, yet so profound—companionship and friendship. The little everyday things we share. What a blessing when a woman can look at her husband, or a man at his wife and say along with the writer of the Song of Solomon, "This is my lover, this is my friend." - By Deborah Raney

Elders' Thoughts

I was challenged this week as I read Philippians 3:20-21 "But our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Saviour from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, who, by the power that enables him to bring everything under his control, will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like his glorious body."

My quiet time material commented "If our citizenship is in heaven, we should live according to heaven's values. We will seek to "lay up for ourselves treasure in heaven," not here on earth. Are you living in such a way that people see you are anxious to be in heaven with the Lord? Do you live for things or do you live for Jesus?"

Some good questions to keep asking ourselves as we review our week past and look forward to our Saviour coming!

Up date from elders

David has had some time off elders duties to assess and reflect during some family issues concerning Ian.

He is now back at the elders meetings and we continue to pray, for him, Denise and their family.

Thank you for your prayer and support.

If any one has further questions, please speak directly to one of the elders.

HELP! WE NEED SOMEBODY TO HELP!

On 22.02.10 we are embarking on a little project involving some embroidery. If you know how to thread a needle, sew blanket stitch, back stitch and chain stitch we would love you to come along to work with a small group of girls. All materials for the girls will be supplied, however if you have a fading quilters pen and scissors that would be helpful. Please speak to Jane Lyall if you can help us from approximately 7:30pm to 8:30pm.

Have you checked your family portrait on our wall?

In your picture was your child in nappies and is now starting school?

Your son or daughter is now taller than you?

Have you added to your family?

Just gotten married or are just new to the chapel.

It might be time for a refreshed picture.

See Paul to get a updated picture taken – remember this wall helps visitors and new families get to know us.
