ELDER'S COMMENT

Before I got a little waylaid with the current series on Ephesians, I was working my way through the book of Romans in my bible reading. I was amazed at how many of the same themes are touched on in the two separate books. I guess you get that with them both having the same author.

Romans 8 v 28 -32

And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose. For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the likeness of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those he predestined, he also called; those he called, he also justified; those he justified, he also glorified. What, then, shall we say in response to this? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all – how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?

In these great verses do you recognise some of the amazing things we discovered in Ephesians: God's working, preplanning, transformation, calling together, justifying, glorifying, provision and equipping?

We are truly blessed!

We will be continuing in our praise of Him and our calling out to God for His help.

See Margaret Herud for details.
